RESIDENT PROFILE

Theresa (Carrio) Long was born and raised in the Boston area as the second of four children. Her father was from Spain and Theresa always wished she had become fluent in Spanish. She and her husband, Joseph, had one daughter, Nancy, and two grandchildren, Jennifer and Andrew. Theresa has always been an animal lover with a special fondness for dogs, as evidenced by her face lighting up when pets visit the community.

Theresa is an avid fan of Boston sports as well, especially the New England Patriots. "We want to win it all," she proudly says of her favorite team.

ASSOCIATE PROFILE

Kevin DellArciprete was born in Malden as the youngest of four children. He has two brothers and one sister. Kevin has been married to his wife, Erin, for more than ten years, and they have two children: Jacob (6) and Noah (3). Kevin is a graduate of Johnson & Wales Culinary School's class of 1996. He and Erin moved to Falmouth in 2005 and opened The Firefly Woodfire Grill on Main Street. Besides the restaurant,

Kevin has been a chef in numerous other settings, including a hospital, a nursing home, and an assisted living community. With two young sons, Kevin keeps pretty busy, but in his spare time enjoys golfing, fishing, and following Boston sports teams, especially the Bruins. When asked what he enjoys cooking most, he smiles and without hesitation says, "Italian food!"

Kevin has introduced a catering program for residents and family members who may have a special occasion to celebrate. He will work with any budget to put together a tailor-made meal for groups of two to 22 in the Family Dining Room or in one of our spacious country kitchens. For details, simply contact Kevin at (508) 564-4474.
