RESIDENT PROFILE

Olive (Fletcher) Lawrence is a native of Ayer, Massachusetts, as was her father. Olive's family owned and operated Fletcher's Clothing Store in downtown Ayer. She had five sisters. After graduating high school, Ollie learned how to take care of newborns at a hospital program in Wellesley. She would spend two to three weeks with each family to help new mothers when they got home from the hospital. Over the years, Ollie also helped out in Fletcher's Clothing Store when her father needed her. She married Bill Lawrence in 1939 and they were married for 65 years. The couple raised their three sons, Ronald, Robin, and Dana, in Groton. After the boys left home, Ollie and Bill built a log home on Sandy Pond in Ayer where her family had spent summers when she was growing up, and they lived there for 30 years. Now, Ollie has five grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. Ollie likes to play cards and rarely misses a bingo game at Nashoba Park!

ASSOCIATE PROFILE

Certified Nursing Assistant Lynsay Landine was born and raised in Fitchburg, Massachusetts. Lynsay developed her sense of caring at a young age, as she played the role of nurse to both her grandmother, who had a lung disease and needed someone to stay with her, and her mom, who had surgery for aneurisms. Lynsay knew she wanted to help people when she got older and took the CNA course at Job Corps in Devens. Now that her family is well, she is helping take care of the residents here at Nashoba Park. Lynsay and her boyfriend, Devon, a sailor on a U.S. submarine stationed in New London, Connecticut, are expecting a baby as an early Christmas present to each other in December. About Nashoba Park, Lynsay said, "From the day I started orientation, it felt like a family here. All the residents are so nice. They are awesome. I love them!"
