RESIDENT PROFILE

Pasqualina (Pat) DiNicola says her parents, Pasqual and Marie Theresa Cardillo of Belmont, wanted a Pasqual, Jr., so when she came along, they named her Pasqualina. Pat's parents had three daughters and then one son. After graduating from high school, Pat went to a secretarial school and became a medical secretary for several doctors.

Pat met her husband Louis while taking ballroom dancing lessons. They were married for 52 years and were always dancing! Pat and Louis had three children: Louis, Jr., Carol, and Tricia and lived in Belmont and Chelmsford. After retirement, they spent their winters in Port Charlotte, Florida. They continued to dance, played bocce, and loved walking the beaches at Sanibel Island and collecting shells. Pat has nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren with another due in November.

Pat's love of gardening inspires her to spend a lot of time in our courtyard enjoying the flowers and the sunshine. She feels safe and secure among her Nashoba Park family.
