RESIDENT PROFILE

Rose (Petzold) Faulkner was born and raised in Lawrence but moved to Methuen in 1943 when she married her husband, Edward (to whom she was married for 50 years!). Rose spent her working years in the accounting and bookkeeping field and retired from Service Wood Heel Company in Lawrence. Rose enjoys traveling, and has visited many islands on the Queen Elizabeth II. Her other travel destinations include Hawaii, San Francisco, and Las Vegas. Rose exercises daily, plays Bingo, and enjoys the 45's card game. She is also great at word searches!

BIG MONEY BINGO!

ASSOCIATES OF THE MONTH

Pat Deeb is a valued member of the Activities Department. She is known for her wit and her great sense of humor. She goes the extra mile to ensure the residents are happy. Not only does she do everything that is asked of her, she is great at anticipating everyone's needs! Pat is a great asset to Methuen Village.

Matt Tiberio is our other associate of the month. He works in the kitchen and in the dining room, but he is also a weekend Activities Department assistant. All the residents speak of Matt's kindness and organizational skills. Congratulations, Matt!

FRIENDS AND TEAMMATES

MUSIC EVERYWHERE!

*Every day is St. Patrick's Day for the Irish! Kevin Farley "The Irish Guy" plays 11 different instruments and shares humor and folklore with our residents. Enjoying the performance are Augustina "Gussie" Russo and Jeannette Trudeau.

*Resident and former Big Band vocalist Jack Rice was only too happy to belt out a few songs with well-known National Public Radio pianist Deborah Wyndham.
