RESIDENT PROFILE

Katherine "Kay" (Coan) Tobin was born and raised in Vermont, and went to college in North Carolina. Kay was working for General Electric when she met Andrew Tobin. They shared a love of golf and then of each other. (Kay was golf club champion when she was 20.) Married for 49 years, the couple lived in New York, Connecticut, Illinois and then Fort Myers, Florida. They made a lot of friends and both worked on the local newspaper there, just for fun. Kay and Andrew had two children, Andrea and Christopher. When her children were in school Kay volunteered tutoring and helping battered and mentally handicapped children. She helped raise funds and build a YMCA for their community. After retirement, Kay traveled to Switzerland, England, Scotland, Spain and Morocco. Eventually, she decided to move closer to Andrea in Massachusetts. When they visited Nashoba Park, Kay loved it and said, "I want to live here!" She enjoys the people, the camaraderie of the residents and the care she gets from the staff. She commented that "We're never without something to do." Kay loves being back in New England, back to her roots.

ASSOCIATE PROFILE

Joyce Jones was born in Leominster and is a native Ayer resident who lived in Springfield, Illinois for a short time. She has one younger sister, Jessica, who also works at Nashoba Park. Joyce went through the Ayer School System and graduated from Ayer High School. She went to Mount Wachusett Community College and transferred to the University of Lowell. She is looking forward to pursuing a business degree, as her dream is to have her own bakery one day. Joyce has worked in our dining services department since November of 2006. She likes the people that live and work at Nashoba Park. She enjoys serving the residents because they are so grateful and always say thank you! She said that "I must have said 'You're Welcome!' a million times!" Joyce likes to draw and is creative with her hair as well and seems to change her hairstyle almost daily! When she is not working or going to school, she likes to play volleyball, swim, go bowling and watch movies with friends.
