RESIDENT PROFILE

Nicholas Eosco was born in Boston and grew up in Jamaica Plain and Hyde Park. Nick was one of six children. He started his own business, Eosco Oil. He married and had nine children, six girls and three boys. Nick is proud of his family and loved spending time with them, particularly taking his children on car rides to get ice cream. He enjoyed being by the water and often took his children on trips to Cape Cod for swimming.

Nick was in the Navy and served his country during World War II. He had several hobbies such as playing Bridge, playing horseshoes, and ice skating. Nick also followed all the Boston sports teams. He played basketball for the local Catholic Youth Organization and volunteered his time to assist other veterans when he could. Nick always loved children and continues to light up when children come to visit.

PUZZLEMAKERS

Residents Charlotte and Betty team up to build a puzzle

Elder Care Examiner Kathleen Watson praises the benefits of jigsaw puzzles as tools that stimulate the brain. The process of searching for pieces repeatedly reinforces short-term memory.

ASSOCIATE PROFILE

Certified Nursing Assistant Iris Eymard was born and grew up in Brazil. She has seven siblings: two sisters and five brothers. While living in Brazil, Iris owned a travel agency. Seven years ago Iris moved to Martha's Vineyard, where she lived for two years. She then moved to Milford where she continues to reside. Three of her siblings still live in Brazil and the others live in various Massachusetts towns. Iris has been a CNA for six years. She enjoys working with the elder population and bringing them joy by helping them feel good. She says, "I take care of the residents with my heart." When she is not working, Iris enjoys watching movies, reading, volunteering in her church, and spending time with her family.
