LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS

We recently celebrated the lifetime achievements of four of our fabulous residents! Top to bottom: Louise Flynn is pictured with members of the Methuen Senior Center and the Methuen Council on Aging, as well as her daughter, Theresa. Louise is a Marine from World War II, volunteer, worked at Elder Services and in banking.

Jennie Ratcliffe is surrounded by friends and family, including her daughter, Jean. Jennie worked in the Arlington Mill and the Eagle Tribune. Mike Beshara is surrounded by his friends and family and enjoyed sharing his award with his great-grandson.

Mike, a WWII Navy veteran, is a former Methuen School Committee member and worked as an engineer. He has two sons.

Katherine Contarino (bottom left and bottom) was surrounded by family, including her daughter, Joyce and son, Michael. Katie is known for her volunteerism and worked at the IRS.

ASSOCIATE OF THE MONTH

Certified Nursing Assistant Stephanie Mendez is our Associate of the Month. She is an integral part of the Resident Care team and has shown tremendous growth since joining Methuen Village. She is respected by residents and fellow associates alike. She mentors others. It is wonderful to see her creative side and her leadership in bringing in other activities for the residents. Congratulations, Stephanie!

HERO'S WELCOME!

returned from Afghanistan and came to visit at Methuen Village with his family, associate Esmeralda Allen made patriotic cupcakes to give him a hero's welcome!

RESIDENT GARDENERS

Left: Betty Stafford and Marianna Gabryjelski enjoy watching their garden grow. The tomatoes will be ready in August!
Right: Guido Montanaro has his own tomato crop.

SWEET SOUNDS
