RESIDENT PROFILE

Thomas McMahon is originally from Nemaocolin, Pennsylvania where he worked in the coal industry with his father and two brothers. Tom was in the U.S. Navy in 1942 during World War II. He served on ships off the coast of North Africa based in Casablanca and in the Pacific and was involved in the invasion of Okinawa. He is a member of the VFW and the American Legion. Tom fell in love with Irene Csmerka on the dance floor, and married her when he returned. They moved to Virginia where Tom became chief engineer of an office complex and Irene worked for the secretary of the U.S. Navy. They were married for 51 very happy years and had a son, Thomas III and a daughter, Margaret. Tom has two successful grandchildren, Jesse and Jocelyn. About Nashoba Park, Tom says, "I really think this is a great place! They help you with anything you need; all you have to do is ask."

HOLIDAY PARTIES

Social Worker Jackie Pozo and Santa (resident) Paul Gribbens enjoyed our community holiday party. For more photos of holiday festivities, see page 2.

ASSOCIATE PROFILE

Dining Services Associate Emma Pribish was born in Michigan and grew up in New Jersey. She moved to Massachusetts last year with her parents and two older sisters. Emma is a senior at Lexington Christian Academy, where she enjoys her stained glass art class and is the leader of the Badminton Club. Emma loves to cook for her family and friends. She became interested in cooking from helping her mother in the kitchen and now would like to make a career out of it. She will be going to the Culinary Institute of America in New York next year and hopes to have a restaurant of her own someday. Emma enjoys reading science fiction novels, watching movies, knitting and traveling to Disney World every year with her family. Emma really likes working at Nashoba Park, especially because she sees her grandfather every day, as he is a resident! Emma says, "Getting to know all of the residents has been a great experience."
