RESIDENT PROFILES

Meet Haig and Roseen Ohanian!

Haig was born in Medford, and after graduating from high school in 1946, his family moved to Watertown. Roseen was born in Belmont and lived there for the last 80 years. They are both first-generation Americans, as their parents were born in Turkey. Haig and Roseen met at their church in Watertown; Roseen was in the choir, and Haig joined to get closer to her! Haig served in the United States Army for two years; he played the trombone in the Army Marching Band. After he and Roseen got married, the Army sent them to Wisconsin. Roseen worked as a secretary on the base. Haig would play for the dancing band at the USO, and Roseen would dance with all the soldiers while Haig played.

The couple moved back to Belmont and Haig started an eight-year apprenticeship with his father to learn to be a diamond cutter. He worked in the jewelry business for 65 years; their jewelry store is located at Downtown Crossing

NEVILLE PLACE ART SHOW

We recently held a show to display the various works of art created by our residents! Associates Sue Bowdridge and Audrey Cina, along with Lesley University intern Angela DeAngeles, helped to adorn our walls with the beautiful pieces of art. Many friends and members of the Cambridge and Lesley communities came to view the show, while enjoying Al Gould on violin, wine, and a delicious selection of cheeses and appetizers.

FRESH POND DAY!

There was lots of activity on the Pond on May 7th! Performers included Herb's Heard 15-piece swing band and the group Acapellas Anonymous from Emerson College. We enjoyed lunch and a scavenger hunt for kids, as well as rides on a trolley provided by City of Cambridge. People from all over Cambridge came out to enjoy our wonderful pond!

and is now run by their son and nephew. Roseen worked as a secretary at Tufts University. Their life and friends centered around the Armenian Protestant Church in Watertown, where they were members for the last 60 years. The Ohanians adopted their two children, Julie and Eric. Julie lives in North Carolina with her husband and three children and Eric and his wife Kelly live in Boxborough and have three children as well. The family gets together for all of their birthdays.

Haig and Roseen have traveled extensively; they have been on 25 cruises, including one to Alaska with the whole family to celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary. Haig and Roseen have recently moved to Neville Place and they are enjoying all that we have to offer. They are a friendly couple who enjoy entertainment or just getting to know their new friends here.
