Welcome, New Residents!

George & Joyce Warner

Ed Duggan grew up in Brockton, Massachusetts. He worked as an engineer at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, where he assisted in developing the guidance system that was partially responsible for the first landing on the moon. Ed moved to Cambridge in his later years with his long term companion, Jean. He is a proud father and grandfather. Ed is also the owner of a beautiful golden retriever named "Breezy," who visits him often.

Ed says his favorite part of Neville Place is the view of the outdoors. "Whether it is winter, spring, summer or fall, it is beautiful!"

Ed has lived at Neville Place in our Memory Support Neighborhood for over four years and he is always willing to get involved. He can be seen riding our Pedicab around Volunteers Work to Beautify Neville Place!

On May 2nd, members from the group Pathways to Family Success volunteered to plant flowers in the containers that decorate the front of Neville Place and our patio. This is the second year that the group, which is sponsored by the Cambridge Health Department, helped in this beautification project!

A Peek at Life in the 1700's

We recently enjoyed a presentation called "Under the Petticoat" by Pat Perry of Sneak Peek Productions. Pat gave us information about how complicated it was to dress in the 1700's. Resident Rose McMurtry (right, bottom) volunteered to dress for the crowd, and Isaiah Hunt from Dining Services (right, top) donned an outfit typical for a wealthy gentleman of the 18th century.
