Vera Metastasio was born in Jamestown, New York and grew up with two brothers. Vera's dad owned a restaurant in Jamestown called the Diamond Grill, which served all types of food. Her mother ran the house and in Vera's words was "a lady." Vera attended Jamestown High School and after graduation went to New York City to attend the Leon Amandola School for Fashion and Hair Design. Vera became interested in this field when she was having her own hair done. She thought the profession looked so glamorous! After graduation she worked in salons all over the United States. She settled in Massachusetts when her younger brother was attending college here.

Vera says she loves the staff at Neville Place, and she loves living actively and independently

Vera worked for many years in the salon industry and stayed in Newton after retiring. She came to Neville Place almost two years ago. She loves her apartment and is happy to enjoy the meals in the dining room. Vera is a friend to everyone here at Neville Place and is always willing to lend a hand if someone needs help. She loves the staff here and they feel the same way towards her. She lives independently and actively and enjoys every day.

Trip to Castle Island

Director of our Memory Support Neighborhood Audrey Cina joined residents in spending the day at Castle Island in South Boston. Our chef, Nick, packed a terrific picnic lunch and a cooler full of refreshments and they spent the day enjoying the sea air of Boston Harbor.

Clockwise, from top:
Howard Newby, Helen Gigante, and Ed Duggan; Jem and Olga Bergamin; Phyllis Furst and Audrey Cina; Susie Mennis; Phyllis Furst and Rebecca Oruma

Happy September Birthday!

--- Road Trip to Rockport ---

We recently took a ride up to Bearskin Neck in the heart of Rockport, Massachusetts. We took a peek in galleries, jewelry stores and candy shops, and from there we headed to Essex to enjoy lunch at Woodman's (who claim to have invented the fried clam) for a wonderful lunch.
