In 1946, Ruth married Walter E. Jones, and the two were together for 61 years. They had three children, one boy and two girls, and are proud grandparents to four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

As a stay-at-home mom, Ruth kept busy by volunteering at the Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children, teaching Sunday school for 20 years, and by becoming very active in the Order of the Eastern Star, where she was Worthy Matron for two years.

Ruth still keeps very busy with her favorite activities, which are sewing and quilting. Ruth's apartment is a showcase for much of her artwork.
