RESIDENT PROFILE

Mildred McCarthy was born Mildred McCoy in Somerville, Massachusetts. Her family moved to Aberdeen Avenue in Cambridge when she was very young. Mildred attended Cambridge High and Latin School and went to work in the insurance industry after high school. Mildred met her future husband, Clyde McCarthy, who was also in the insurance business, and they were soon married.

Mildred and Clyde made their home just a short distance from Neville Place, where they raised their two children, son Clyde (known as Skip), who is a Cambridge teacher, and daughter Diane. Mildred and Clyde loved parties and dancing. Clyde passed away just a short time after he retired.

Today, Mildred has one grandson and more on the way. She enjoys going out with her children and loves the musical entertainment at Neville Place. She finds life at Neville Place very comfortable and enjoys the company, especially at her lively table in the dining room!

WELCOME,
NEW RESIDENTS!
